SMART SHOPPE IN NEW STORE ON SARTORI ST.

Levy Building to House Men's Store as Well

Keeping abreast with the growth of Torrance and a resultant increase in business, the Levy Smart Shoppe moved this week into new and more spacious quarters in the new Levy building on Sartori street.

Mrs. Sam Levy announced that the men's store will move into the new building from El Prado street within the next two weeks.

When this move is made a formal opening will be held.

The Smart Shoppe occupies one half of the new building. The men's furnishing store will occupy the other half.

In constructing the new Levy building Mr. and Mrs. Levy remembered that living quarters are in great demand in Torrance, and put offices and apartments on the second floor.

KEYSTONE NEWS

NEW 3-STORY BUILDING FOR CITY IN SIGHT

A new two-story or three-story class A building will be erected in the business district of Torrance soon. This was the announcement made before the board of trustees Tuesday night by Gus Snyder, who was granted a permit by the board to conduct a recreation hall business.

Mr. Snyder impressed the trustees most favorably with the outline of his plan, and he promises to conduct a billiard hall of high character. He announced that the capital has been secured to construct a fine new building in the business district.

Trustees Invite People To Meet On Paving Plans

Residents on streets bounded by Arlington, Cabrillo, 220th and Carson will be requested to attend a special meeting of the board of trustees next Tuesday night for the purpose of presenting their views concerning improving all the streets of the district. Such a difference of opinion has arisen over the subject that the trustees instructed the clerk to send postal cards to residents of the area whose names are available, requesting them to attend the meeting.

Seek To Eliminate Danger To School Children In Streets

SLOW When motorists in the near future drive along Arlington and Carson streets that word written in large white letters on the pavement will confront them. The trustees Tuesday night, appreciative of the fact that the intersection is now heavily traveled, ordered the signs painted. Chief Anderson pointed out that several accidents have occurred at and near this intersection and called the board's attention to the fact that school children going to and coming from school in this vicinity are daily endangered. A 12-mile limit on Carson and Arlington near the intersection will be declared and signs posted along the streets.

NEW BUILDING SUPPLY HERE

The Ratliff Building Material company, under the management of L. Sanderson, has opened a new store in Torrance, located on Border avenue between the laundry and Legion hall.

Their wares will be everything for the plastering contractor, and when they say "everything" they mean it. The company has a store in Hawthorne, and in coming to Torrance it is branching out into new fields.

ALTAR SOCIETY

After the regular meeting of the Altar society of the Torrance Catholic church a social hour at cards was greatly enjoyed. Ted Wertz, Miss Kate Ortman and Mrs. L. F. Luck won the prizes.

The Altar society meets the first Friday of each month. The business meeting is followed by an hour or so at cards. Everyone is welcome.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The first executive board meeting of the club year was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. John A. Young.

Three new members—Mrs. Guy Mowrey, Mrs. Forrest J. Young, and Mrs. Charles Mueller—were admitted to the club.

A motion was passed to bring before the club the matter of changing the day of regular meetings from the first and third Mondays to the second and fourth Thursdays of the month.

The board desires to publicly express appreciation in behalf of the club of the proffered use, gratis, of the Methodist church parlors and community hall.

The first club meeting will be held at the home of the president Monday, October 1, and will be purely social. Members are urged to keep the date in mind.

Mrs. Willis Brook, program chairman, reported a number of especially interesting speakers already secured for the year's program.

The chairmen who will assist Mrs. Brooks follow: Child welfare, Mrs. W. C. Andus; conservation, Mrs. Mary E. Dolley; federation emblem, Mrs. Florence Gramling; home economics, Mrs. Frank Miller; motion pictures, Mrs. S. C. Collins; current events, Mrs. Estelle Greaves; California history and landmarks, Mrs. M. L. Mays; civics, community service, Mrs. Edna Stone; co-operation with ex-service men, Mrs. A. P. Stevenson.

Other chairmen are: Music, Mrs. Clara Curtis; parliamentary usage, Mrs. Hurum Reeve; ways and means, Mrs. Nettie Steinhaber; membership, Mrs. Mae Tompkins; hospitality, Mrs. F. L. Parks; press, Mrs. Winifred Barnard; historian, Mrs. Phoebe Milburn; federation, Mrs. Mabel Garbar.

Here less than twenty-four hours, Mrs. George Thomas Parker of Portland, Ore., is imbued with the true California spirit. She thinks this country is simply great. Mrs. Parker and her son Billy are guests of the former's brother, Floyd Parker, at the Ideal boarding house.
